Welcome to our special 4-day tour to King Island in Bass Strait. Heading to Melbourne Airport to connect with our direct flight to King Island. Most people will get a fantastic view as we fly down the coast prior to landing. On arrival in King Island our local tour company, King Island Tours will commence our touring in the township of Currie, with a visit to the Cultural Centre. Visiting Kelp Industries, Currie Lighthouse and the Museum with rich local history. Late afternoon we check into our hotel and enjoy dinner in the onsite restaurant, with breathtaking views of the Great Southern Ocean.

Day 2 (BLD): Rugged Beauty of King Island Wednesday, 20 October

We begin our day driving along the scenic rugged southwest coast, in our off road 4x4 vehicle. Visit the site of Australia's worst peacetime maritime disaster before travelling over the dunes of the Bowling property, a seventh-generation farming family (where King Island Tours has exclusive access). Morning tea is in a spectacular location. We head towards Surprise Bay where a gourmet lunch awaits us, featuring the best of King Island produce. It's a Crayfish lunch with matched wines. After our delightful lunch, we continue our journey and see the unique 7000-year-old calcified forest and amazing views from Seal Rocks. Dinner tonight is at Australia's award-winning restaurant, Wild Harvest, followed by storytelling with the nocturnal Penguin experience.

Breakfast and dinner at motel | Lunch included

Day 3 (BLD): Natures Architecture Thursday, 21 October

Today we travel to the northern part of King Island and we are having morning tea at Reekara, with local arts and kelp craft made exclusively by local people. Overlooking the two islands, Christmas and New Years Island, is Quarantine Bay. With a fascinating history, we'll learn how King Island was named. Our next stop is Egg Lagoon. The name is believed to come from the finding of a large number of goose eggs in the area. Not too far away is Martha Lavinia, known as a world class beach break. Perfect 'A-frame' waves are formed by swell wrapping around both sides of the island and it is a truly unique natural wonder of the Australian surf scene.

While in the area we stop at Penny's Lagoon, a natural phenomenon with its suspended freshwater lake (one of only three in the world). From this point we continue our journey to Cape Wickham Lighthouse, the southern hemisphere's tallest lighthouse. We might even watch a hole in one as the lighthouse overlooks the famous golf course. A picnic lunch follows. Our final stop for the day is the King Island Dairy for a tasting of its award-winning cheese, that includes a free gift voucher to use in store. King Island Dairy is an Australian dairy factory, which has been operated from King Island since 1902. We conclude our day with dinner at one of the islands restaurants where we continue the gourmet trail.

Day 4 (B): King Island to Melbourne Friday, 22 October 2027

We explore the East Coast of King Island this morning before making our way to the King Island airport. Our first stop is the 'City of Melbourne' bay on our way to the village of Naracoopa for morning tea. We visit the stunning coastline including Sea Elephant Bay and the Blowhole (depending on the tide). You will experience more stunning flora and fauna as we travel towards to the airport and arrive in time to check in for our Regional Express flight back to Melbourne Airport. Arriving at the airport, we collect our bags and step on the coach to head home from a fantastic King Island tour.
